Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, September 11.—S. S. Cox, United States Minister to Turkey, is about starting for home on a furlough, owing to ill health. Heaps, secretary of the American Legion, will conduct the affairs of the office during Cox's absence. His will continue the negotiations for a new tariff treaty between the United States and Turkey. More Armenians are going to the United States to be naturalized. The United States government has not replied to the protests of those Armenians whose American citizenship Turkey refuses to recognize.

OUR NEW NAVY.

WASHINGTON, September 11.—By this evening's mail advertisements are sent to the press by the Navy Department, inviting proposals for a variety of work and material in connection with the navy. American shipbuilders are invited to submit proposals for the construction of one cruiser of about 4000 tons, one of about 3700 tons, one heavily-armed gunboat of about 1500 tons, one light-armed gunboat of about 870 tons, and one cruiser of about 4400 tons. The proposals are divided into four classes and may be made under either heads, as follows: For the construction of hull and machinery, including engines, boilers and all apparatus; for the construction of hull complete in all respects; for the construction and erection on board the vessel of engines, boilers and apparatus; and for the construction of all appendages and specifications approved by the Secretary of the Navy, the contractor to provide all materials which he may consider more suitable than those called for, the said plans and specifications not to exceed, however, in value the amount in excess of what is required, except in the case of engines, boilers and apparatus; but no such proposal will be considered unless accompanied by full and complete plans and specifications of the results of the same if adopted. Every successful bidder will be required, on delivery of the work, to enter into a formal contract for the performance of his work, and to give a bond therefore, with sufficient sureties and with a penal sum equal to one-fourth of the cost of the work done. The three cruisers must be completed within eighteen months, and the two gunboats within twelve months from the date of awarding the contracts. The department, having in view the construction of two armored vessels of different types, of about 6000 tons displacement each, will give the submittal of designs from naval or marine architects, from engineers or mechanics of established reputation, all reputable manufacturers of vessels, engines, boilers and engines, and especially all naval contractors, steam engineers and others, who have experience in such work. The proposed vessels is to be an armored cruiser and the other as powerfully armed as possible, as can be obtained in the above description. The requirements of the Department are laid down in a circular which will be furnished to those interested, on application to the Department or to the attaches at New London.

THE MAYFLOWER WINS.
America Will Retain the Championship Until 1887.

New York, September 11.—To-day's race has decided upon which side stay at least for another year. It resulted in a glorious victory for the Mayflower. When she finished this evening at 6:15 p.m. the Galatas was nearly two miles astern. The course was twenty miles toeward and return from Scotland and lightship. The race was sailed in a breeze that blew fresh from the northwest for three hours, then canting two points to westward it fell light, the last hour of the contest being little better than drift. The Galatas was nearly half a mile ahead of the Mayflower only half eight minutes and twenty seconds, as the wheel turned to finish line, as the limit of the race was seven hours. The Galatas was defeated on every point of sailing, the Mayflower was the best sailer, the Galatas thirteen minutes and forty-five seconds, and in windward work over half an hour. There is great room among yachtsmen here to-morrow when boatmen are fairly wild with delight.

LIEUTENANT HENRY VERY SICK.

Off Wherry boat at 10:15 the Galatas cast off. Her crew soon made sail while the Mayflower crew did not begin sailing their boat until 10:30. When the signal was given to start the Galatas, Lloyd, 14, representing the New York Yacht Club, told the Rogues Committee that Lieutenant Henry was very sick. The crew said that he was not fit to sail.
